

Manuscript submission for publication:

Manuscript submission to any journal includes several steps that start with the formatting and editing. Afterwards several documents need to be gathered and submitted, such as a cover letter, transfer of copyright and author details.